

NEW YORK POST

24 HOURS A DAY

BRAD PITT GOES ON A BUYING SPREE

June 5, 2008 -- BRAD Pitt is spending the weeks leading up to Angelina Jolie's delivery of the couple's twins by buying furniture for their huge new French mansion. Pitt made a stop at the Design Miami Basel fair in Switzerland this week and dropped a load of cash. Spies said he bought a hollow white marble rococo-style table by Dutch designer Jeroen Verhoeven from London-based Carpenters Workshop Gallery for $293,000; got two Ron Arad chairs from New York-based gallery Sebastian + Barquet for an undisclosed price; and ordered "Silver Sky," a rug made of aluminum thread from New York dealer Cristina Grajales, which sells for $175 a square foot. Pitt also showed interest in a gold lacquer-coated fiberglass sofa by Zaha Hadid offered by London-based dealer Kenny Schachter.